

WELCOME TO HARRY GORDON'S BAR

A handwritten signature in grey ink that reads "H. Gordon Selfridge". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping tail that extends to the right.

Harry Gordon Selfridge was an American retail entrepreneur, born into humble beginnings in Wisconsin in 1856. After leaving school at the age of 14 he began work at a Chicago-based department store in Marshall Field. He was soon nicknamed 'mile-a-minute Harry' for his non stop ideas which saw him work his way from stock boy through to junior partner, marrying heiress Rose Buckingham in 1890 along the way. Harry would regularly travel to Europe on buying trips and in 1906 he moved permanently to London, to found his eponymous Oxford Street store in 1909. Developing the phrase, 'the customer is always right' quickly seen retailers around the world employ the same phrase to this day.
